

Prayer Requests April 2022

Juvenile Justice Ministry

CM – Pray my family can be safe and that I'll try harder to be with God. Pray that my family can understand that what happens to me cannot be changed, but that God gave me a peace of mind to get through it. Also, that all my family can accept God – especially my brother and cousin.

DW – God, I need help getting home. I know I can work this out. Please help my mom, brothers and sisters. Please give me a chance. I know you are here. I need to be safe in life, to get old. I won't mess this up, I don't want to die. Please save me and my family, I want to be home with them.

RM – I would like prayer for my whole family and for my court situation to speed up my court date. I need prayer for another chance to go home. And, I need prayers for protection while I am in here, please watch over me every step of the way. Please watch over my family and forgive my sins.

JH – I pray for a better relationship with God. I pray for a peaceful mindset and positive guidance for everyone. And, I pray for forgiveness.

M – I pray for guidance, family, my court date and strength in this time. Please pray that I can be my best self.

JM – I've been thinking, and I want to try to get better. Watch over my people so they do good and pray for my next court date.

JV – I am praying that the judge will let me out so that I can change my life around. I am praying that God watches over me, my family, friends and girlfriend. Jesus, help me through this situation.

ES – Every Sunday the Lord speaks to me through you... may you please continue praying for me.

KJ – Pray that everything will go well when I go home on house arrest. God, please bring peace to my heart. Please pray for my mom, brothers and my daughter. Pray for all of us in detention.

ED – I pray that everything gets better. I pray that we get another chance to show we can make a change. I pray for my mother and sisters.

MR – Please pray for my family and my relationship with God for I want to be connected with him. Pray for those that are doing worse than me. Please pray for my relationship with my family, I love them dearly.

MO – I need prayer that the judge lets me go on house arrest. I ask for prayer for me and my family that God will pour his love out and bring us closer together. I also ask for the body of Christ that we will unite as a body of Christ.

JR – I pray God keeps me safe and he helps me change my sinful ways. I want to build a stronger relationship with him.

OZ – I want you to pray for my family and for my health and protection. I also pray that my charges won't be that bad. I pray for everyone in need.

DW – Please pray for me, and for my next court date. I have asked God for forgiveness. I repent, please God give me another chance.

J – Pray that I get house arrest.

Parent Life

A – Please stand in agreement with us for debt freedom so we can move to a better neighborhood. Pray that I can be patient with myself.

J – I am asking for prayer for my wife – for her peace, health and patience. Protect our son during his surgery.

A - My daughter and T. I pray that God watches over them and keeps them safe, strong, and healthy.

D - I want to pray for my brother. He has problems with his divorce. I hope his life gets better. Thank you.

C - I would be thankful if you would pray for my cousin's mother. Her son passed away last year and he would always buy her flowers for Mother's Day.

D - I always pray for my baby to be healthy and if you guys also pray for us. I would so much be grateful for it.

T – Pray for our son Z who was diagnosed with Autism – and for us that we will have wisdom to know the right steps. Help our daughter to be born healthy.
